StayWell Holdings opens first property in Shenzhen, China.

- Leisure Inn Shenzhen opened on 20th September 2017.
- This property is the first Leisure Inn property opened in China.
- Leisure Inn Shenzhen signifies StayWell Holdings continuous effort to grow the brand in China and Asia as a whole.

On 20th September, China welcomed international hotel brand Leisure Inn to its accommodation offering as parent company StayWell Hospitality Group opened the country's first Leisure Inn hotel in the Pingshan District of Shenzhen.

With 87 guest rooms, free Wi-Fi, dedicated conference and training rooms and an indoor garden, the property sits on 5,000 square metres and is the perfect introduction into the Chinese market for StayWell Holdings.

President & Director of StayWell Holdings, Mr. Simon Wan said the new property is an exciting opportunity to cement the Leisure Inn brand as a leader in business and leisure accommodation within the China market.

"Opening Leisure Inn Shenzhen is quite an achievement for StayWell, and demonstrates how committed we are to our global expansion plans," said Mr Wan.

Leisure Inn Shenzhen Property Owner, Mr. Ben Ho, said "We are very pleased to have opened the doors to our first property in China and to have partnered with StayWell Holdings," he said.

Leisure Inn Shenzhen boasts a central location in the Pingshan district, conveniently close to shopping precincts, restaurants, convenience stores and tourist attractions.
